

Hotel Management System –

Display Available Rooms Status

Name:

Display available rooms status

Description:

This use case covers the navigation of the showing to available room status for creation of a new booking and modification of the hotel database.

Actors:

Staff & Manager

Triggers:

The use case is triggered by contact to a potential customer (by phone or email or whatever) or the attempt of the hotel manager to change the hotel database.

Preconditions:

None

Postconditions:

After the use case is completed, available rooms' status of the selected date will be shown in the user interface

Courses of events:

Basic course of events:

1. The user selects a date from the system calendar
2. The system displays different blocks of room status for the user to select
3. The user selects the 'display available room status' button
4. The system displays the status for available rooms

Extension Points:

None

Inclusions:

None