Booking System – Remove an Existing Room

Name:

Remove an Existing Room

Description:

This use case covers the removing of an existing room by the user.

Actors:

Administrator

Triggers:

The use case is triggered by the rebuilding of the hotel.

Preconditions:

None

Postconditions:

After the use case is complete, there will be a room removed.

Courses of events:

Basic course of events:

1. The user performs the get all room status use case

2. The system display all the rooms status

2. There are all rooms with their status displayed. The user selects the existing room from the display

3. The system highlights the room to indicate it is selected

4. The user selects the remove function

5. The system asks the user to confirm

6. The user selects yes

7. The room is removed from the system and the room status data is updated

8. The user selects no

9. The room is not removed from the system

Extension Points:

None

Inclusions:

Get All Room Status

Administrator Log-in